FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Community Name Implements CivicPlus® Recreation Management Solution

New System Offers Communities Easier Access to Park and Recreation Activities and Registration

CITY, STATE – Month XX, 20XX – Community Name has partnered with CivicPlus to implement its Recreation Management software. The cloud-based solution allows residents greater visibility into offered parks and recreation department activities, classes, sports, youth leagues, and memberships, as well as more convenient online registration and payment. It will also allow residents to search for and reserve community facilities, such as pavilions, shelters, and meeting rooms, all conveniently online.

"Quote from community representative on the value of the software and benefits the community expects to gain."

The CivicPlus Recreation Management software is intuitive to navigate and easy for residents to use. It is mobile-friendly, allowing community members to search for local activities and events, register, and remit payment from any smartphone or tablet.

The software is part of the CivicPlus integrated technology suite of software designed for local governments.

"CivicPlus designs innovative solutions for local governments," said Steve Gilbert, CivicPlus Vice President of Marketing. "We continually invest in our solutions to strengthen and transform the way governments work and communicate with their residents. We are proud to partner with Community Name Parks and Recreation Department to help accomplish their goals."
